

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 15.

TERRIBLE VISIONS.—Edward Unger, who was sent to Sing Sing for life for the murder of August Bohle in New York, is now in the hospital of the prison, a sufferer from nervous prostration. It will be remembered that Unger dismembered Bohle, threw the head in the river and sent the remainder of the body in a trunk to Baltimore. On the first morning in the prison he told a keeper that he had been visited during the night by his dismembered victim, who had proceeded to reconstruct himself in the terrified prisoner's presence. Of this dream he could not be dissuaded. He seemed to believe it was reality. Every night it came to him, and at the end of a week he was much broken down. In the hospital it has been the same with him except when he is kept very soundly asleep under narcotic influence. He dreams that the mangled pieces of his friend are strewn about the room, where they lie a while inanimate, as they did before he packed the body in the trunk and threw the head into the river. Then the fragments begin to quiver. Soon they move slowly toward each other, until they are in a heap. Next, they adjust themselves into a human form. But the head is missing. At length that, too, comes into the room, with its hair dripping with the water of the river in which it has lain. With a horrible smile on its face, it places itself on the shoulders of Unger, shrieks out and menaces the murderer. Unger shrieks out at this point, and the apparition vanishes from his imagination. All efforts have failed to relieve him of these visions.

A HINDOO HUSBAND'S CREED.—"A man, both day and night, must keep his wife so much in subjection that she by no means be mistress of her own actions. A woman shall never go out of her house without the consent of her husband, and shall not eat until she has first served him with victuals. If it is medicine, she may take it before they eat; a woman shall never go to a stranger's house, and shall not stand at the door and must never look out of the window. If a woman following her own inclinations goes whosoever she chooses, and does not regard the words of her master, such a woman shall be turned away. If a man goes on a journey, his wife shall not divert herself by play, nor see any public show, nor laugh, nor dance, nor hear music, nor sit at the window, nor ride out, nor behold anything rare or choice, but shall fasten well the house door and remain private, and shall not view herself in a mirror, she shall not exercise herself in any agreeable employment during the absence of her husband. If the wife have her own free will, notwithstanding she is of superior caste, she will go amiss." Such is the Hindoo idea of marriage.

"Delays are Dangerous."
If you are pale, emaciated, have a hacking cough, with night sweats, spitting of blood and shortness of breath, you have no time to lose. Do not hesitate too long till you are past cure; for, taken in its early stages, consumption can be cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," as thousands can testify. By druggists.
